16 Tools To Sainthood *

Suffering is the coin of Heaven.

1. The Jesus Prayer

“Lord Jesus Christ, son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.”

(Repeat)

Begin with the Lord’s Prayer, to warm up your heart, then repeat this one. Start it mindfully, then let your heart take over. This prayer bulldozes evil out of your heart, because He will not dwell where evil dwells.

2. Humility
Realise the Christ is a king and set over all creatures. You can't get to Heaven without going through Him. He has authority over you. Every knee must bow to Him; He can compel it, if He wishes to. It is incomprehensible to proud entities that He chooses (mostly) not to.

It is your absolute best interests to be a good and true servant to our Lord.

3. Prayer

Petition, praise, adore and thank our King humbly, kneeling.

4. Fasting

A full belly leads to sloth. An empty belly is an offering of suffering.

5. Suffering

Suffering is the coin of Heaven. Man has a debt to pay. The scales must be balanced. Suffering cheerfully undergone for Christ's sake is pleasing to God.

6. Offerings

The Work of God needs money and labour. It doesn't proceed merely by good wishes. You can help by offering both. A lighter wallet is a form of suffering too!

7. The Sacraments

Trying to get to Heaven without these is like a swimmer, in a tempest, refusing the offer of a lifebelt (from the Barque of Peter!)

Confession is the most important, after Baptism. Without this, the chance of going to Heaven, across a population, is minute.

8. Charity

See Christ in others and give to the needy. Christ made the ultimate sacrifice. You can make small sacrifices every day.

9. Continence

Especially, sexual continence. Avoid every form of evil. Restrain evil passions. Ignore the glittering trash the World offers. Have clean hands, clean head, clean heart and thus a clean soul.
10. The Crucifix

The crucifix and what it means; the terrible sufferings of Christ on Holy Thursday and Good Friday.

Why is a crucifix so repellent to evildoers? Because they are proud and cannot bear how a powerful being would willingly undergo such prolonged torture for small creatures such as human beings. It is also a painful reminder to them of the great victory of God over the Devil and his human and infernal allies. Also, when you look at Christ, Christ looks at you.

For a Catholic, contemplating it makes your own sufferings seem small and you will want to join your suffering to his, to pay God back for your sins, those of your family line and your society. You will want to prostrate yourself before it and thank Him for all he has done for you.

11. Indulgences

You can gain remission of the punishment due in Purgatory for sins you have committed in this life, or you can relieve the dead. These indulgences can be applied to yourself or the Holy Souls; the deceased in Purgatory.

It's very important that you research and understand the legal conditions of gaining indulgences. Books like these or odd internet sites may not list them correctly. God is the great lawgiver, He heeds the just laws His Church makes and the rules must be followed. You need to find a current, valid Enchiridion of Indulgences.

12. Pious Reading

The Bible and the mystical lives of the saints. Also personal accounts of visits to Heaven and Hell, of exorcisms and of encounters with Jesus and Mary. These latter are called 'private revelations', as they are not 'public revelations', which ended with the death of the last Apostle. They can be quite sobering.

13. Sponsoring Masses

You can pay a priest for a specific Mass Intention. You can sing in the choir or serve at the altar. Each is an offering. Great works can be done by having masses said.

14. The Sorrowful Mysteries Of The Holy Rosary
From the evening of Holy Thursday to 3pm on Holy Friday God Himself submitted to frightful and constant abuse and then suffered a cruel and prolonged death, that some men might be saved. If you understand this, you may grasp the means to be saved yourself.

15. Latin

Learn common Catholic prayers in Latin. This makes it harder for you or oppressing demons to interfere in their recital. Latin is no longer used commonly and thus can attract no vulgar connotations, unlike English. It is also simple, ancient, proper and direct, making it more suitable to be used in worship.

16. The Breviary

Recite this every day, if you have the ability to do it. It will enhance your spiritual life and your prayer vocabulary.

These Things The Righteous Profess *

Here is what every Christian should profess. If you find you can't follow, or won't, you have a problem.

God has gone to a lot of trouble to convey to you the following. Why do you think you have any leeway? Do you think the Father Of The Law, the Origin of Justice, is going to overlook His own Law?

Do you think those saints who went to their deaths rather than profess to the contrary, were fools?

Ignorance may save many, but I wouldn't count on it. There's too much at stake.

The Ten Commandments

Douay-Rheims Bible, Exodus, Chapter 20:

[1] And the Lord spoke all these words: [2] I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. [3] Thou shalt not have strange gods before me. [4] Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. [5] Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them: I am the Lord thy God, mighty, jealous, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

[6] And shewing mercy unto thousands to them that love me, and keep my commandments. [7] Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that shall take the name of the Lord his God in vain. [8] Remember that thou keep holy the sabbath day. [9] Six days shalt thou labour, and shalt do all thy works. [10] But on the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work on it, thou nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy beast, nor the stranger that is within thy gates.

[16] Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. [17] Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house: neither shalt thou desire his wife, nor his servant, nor his handmaid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his. [18] And all the people saw the voices and the flames, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mount smoking: and being terrified and struck with fear, they stood afar off, [19] Saying to Moses: Speak thou to us, and we will hear: let not the Lord speak to us, lest we die. [20] And Moses said to the people: Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that the dread of him might be in you, and you should not sin.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Hail Mary

Hail Mary, Full of Grace, The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of death. Amen.
The Gloria

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE FOUR LAST THINGS — DEATH, JUDGMENT, HELL and HEAVEN
FATHER MARTIN VON COCHEM, O.S.F.C.

Father Martin von Cochem was born at Cochem, on the Moselle, in the year 1625, and died at Waghausel in 1712.

“Remember thy last end, and thou shalt never sin.”
VI. On the Loss of the Beatific Vision of God.

"... St. Bonaventure bears witness to this, when he says: “The most terrible penalty of the damned is being shut out forever from the blissful and joyous contemplation of the Blessed Trinity.” Again, St. John Chrysostom says: “I know many persons only fear Hell because of its pains, but I assert that the loss of the celestial glory is a source of more bitter pain than all the torments of Hell.”

The evil one himself was made to acknowledge this, as we read in the legends of Blessed Jordan, at one time General of the Dominican Order. For when Jordan asked Satan, in the person of one who was possessed, what was the principal torment of Hell, he answered: “Being excluded from the presence of God.” “Is God then so beautiful to look upon?” Jordan inquired. And on the devil replying that He was indeed most beautiful, he asked further: “How great is His beauty?” “Fool that thou art,” was the rejoinder, “to put such a question to me! Dost thou not know that His beauty is beyond compare?” “Canst thou not suggest any similitude,” Jordan continued, “which may give me to some extent at least an idea of the Divine beauty?” Then Satan said: “Imagine a crystal sphere a thousand times more brilliant than the sun, in which the loveliness of all the colors of the rainbow, the fragrance of every flower, the sweetness of every delicious flavour, the costliness of every precious stone, the kindliness of men and the attractiveness of all the Angels combined; fair and precious as this crystal would be, in comparison with the Divine beauty, it would be unsightly and impure.”

“And pray,” the good monk inquired, “what wouldst thou give to be admitted to the vision of God?” And the devil replied: “If there were a pillar reaching from earth to Heaven, beset with sharp points and nails and hooks, I would gladly consent to be dragged up and down that pillar from now until the Day of Judgment, if I could only be permitted to gaze on the Divine countenance for a few brief moments.”

Hence we may gather how infinite is the beauty of the face of God, if even the spirit of evil would submit to such physical torture as he describes for the sake of enjoying for a few moments the sight of that gracious and majestic countenance. There is therefore no doubt that nothing is a source of such anguish to the devils and the damned as being deprived of the beatific vision of God. …”

God And His Creatures *

I wondered if God being one and then creating others was in itself part of the cause of the fall of the angels and then men. If there is another, then there arises the possibility of opposition.

However, opposing obvious perfect goodness is by definition and in fact evil.

First the One.
The One thinks: If one, then other?
The One says: Let there be other.
Others then exist.
The others are not at one with the One.
Some others remain in Self and do not kneel before the One.
These others oppose the One, not being one, not being part of the One, the others having a different will.
The One being good, being one, and first, and at one time All, and creator of all that is other, to oppose the will of the One is evil.
The One, being supreme, radiant good, the evil others cannot remain in His presence and cannot be permitted to remain in His presence and are cast out.

A question useful in deciding the worth of any religious writing

“What’s Catholic about it?”

I find this question useful in deciding the worth of any religious writing.

The less mention is made of The Lord God, The Lord Jesus Christ, The Holy Spirit, The Blessed Virgin Mary, saints, angels, miracles, penance, asceticism, Calvary, the Sacraments, the priesthood and the Four Last Things, the more you can ignore it.

I also surmise that those men who are demonically influenced, and demons themselves, will avoid talking about these beings and topics.

If A Loving God, Why Hell? *

God's Mercy implies His Justice.

God's Mercy implies His Justice. If I have the power to show you mercy, implicit in that is that I have power over you; that I can judge you and then enforce that judgement.

So that's the first clue; God is not a senile grandfather, he is Pater Omnipotens, the Just Judge.

The following is speculation; take it or leave it:

Hell is God's Wrath manifest as a place and
The absence of hope and
The absence of caritas and
The absence of anything good and
The absence of light and
The absence of God Himself and …

The presence of beings purely evil, who hate each other with undying hate, in a plastic, psychic, yet super-real plane, lasting forever. Who torture each other, forever.

And you can go there and be among them, quite easily.

Why Catholicism Is The Superior Religion *

A Catholic hermit living in poverty is what comes to mind when you think of a typical holy human.

Catholicism is essentially monastic. Monks deny the flesh, the Devil and Self to draw nearer to Christ and to amplify Him in their hearts. Priests and religious follow this model to a greater or lesser degree.

Contrast that with every other religion you know.

Orthodox Christianity allows a kind of divorce. A married man can be a priest. The Virgin Mary was not immaculately conceived without the stain of Original Sin. She did not ascend bodly into Heaven. Orthodox religious and priests can be holy, but their nationalist churches and easing of doctrine is where the rot began officially in Christianity.

Protestants allow divorce. They have, most seriously, dropped the sacrament of Confession. Their priestly orders are invalid; they don't themselves think their priests are set apart from the rest of us by their ordination. They believe that 'once saved, always saved', which negates spiritual exercise. A protestant is not what comes to mind when you try to imagine a holy man. They, themselves don't think asceticism is worthwhile.

Islam allows multiple wives. It has no monastic tradition I'm aware of. Muslims can morally make war on non-muslims and take their property, their women and their lives. It claims it is the final product of a line from Moses to Christ but rejects central tenets of Christianity. A muslim, even a Sufi mystic, is not what comes to mind when you try to imagine a holy man.

Hinduism and Buddhism. Sadhus and Buddhist monks certainly look the part. But who or what do they believe in? No god, no God, or, a wide variety of gods, and mystical practices to go with that. Producing ... men who can produce low level magical effects and personality change, but, that's about it. No one is raised from the dead in the flesh, no one is cured of incurable diseases, permanently.

Paganism. Think about any occultist you know. That's paganism: a man choosing to worship a created thing, or himself, or treat with demons. Holy? Ha ha.

Holy. Who is holy? Holiness is in the gift of God. 'Sanctus' is what the seraphim sing when they circle the Throne. Those beings of vast and unimaginable power are compelled to sing this word in the Presence of the Lord Most High. He embodies it and is its source.

In whom do you see it in your locality? In whom was it seen in the past?
Catholicism is interesting because it denies the world and seeks God, through Christ. All other religions embrace the world to a greater or lesser degree.

Inferring The Existence Of God *

We are more intelligent than animals.
The universe is huge.
It is likely there are entities more intelligent and powerful than us.
The universe is finite.
The universe had a beginning, but who or what would go to the trouble of initiating it?
Therefore there is one being who is the most intelligent and powerful of all beings.

How can we lower creatures totally understand higher ones?

If there are beings in a relation to us, as we are to amoebas, then they may exist outside of the constraints of time, space and mortality that we suffer. We cannot comprehend them, as mice cannot comprehend us.

Now we make a jump.

People report seeing ghosts and demons. They report life after death and life beyond the material plane. They get information about the material plane which they could not have got by currently understandable means. This has been going on for as long as Man has existed.

The behaviour of ghosts, demons, angels and the denizens of heaven is like that of beings unconstrained by four-dimensional space-time. They materialise at will and can ‘see’ the future. They intersect with our plane of existence in ways which are frightening to us, as they come from ‘above’. They are like adults doing mysterious things that babies can't grasp. They foretell the future because they stand outside linear time and can see probabilities coalescing further ahead.

There must be one of them which is the most powerful.
Nothing in the Universe comes out of nothing – why is there anything and not nothing, as all in the universe tends to decay? Therefore the universe must have had an intelligent Cause.

7 Reasons Why God Allows Evil *

1. Evil is done by men, not by God.

2. Eve broke the one rule God gave her and drew Adam into sin. Man fell from Paradise. Any evil consequences are thus our own fault.

3. A material universe means decay. Material things decay. This is in the nature of material things. This decay is confused with evil.

4. That there is more than one being means opposition between beings. Angels opposed God, man opposes God and men oppose each other. People pursue their own ends and come into opposition with one another. This leads to evil.

5. People pay for their own sins, those of their family and of their society. Sinful action begets a reaction. This reaction may be just or evil.

6. Without the possibility of great evil there cannot be the possibility of great good. The concept would not exist.

7. Men must have the ability to choose to do evil if they are also to have the ability to choose good. The singular Being that made everything wants us freely to choose good, as He is wholly good and the origin of good. Men are incarnated and thus can’t perceive God clearly, so they make moral mistakes, unlike his angels, who, united with Him all the time, only wish to do good. A being that has no choice over what it does is a robot or a slave, and God does not desire us to be in these categories of being.
One Day You Will Realise .... *

One day you will realise that you can only be in one room at one time, eat one meal at one time, wear one suit of clothes at one time. Your life is finite and its end approaches faster the older you get.

When you realise that, the project of owning a mansion on a country estate seems a waste of time and energy.

How To Destroy Christianity In Two Short Sentences *

How to destroy Christianity in two short sentences. Just make the following proposition:

God loves us.
Only the very bad go to Hell.

Which follows:
So what did Jesus die for then?

This is the root cause of what we've had to suffer since 1970. Unless this proposition is nullified, then Western society will continue its decline, which decline stems from a perversion of Christianity at its heart: the Catholic Church.

No fear of Hell => No fear of sin => A society of villains.
The New Age – The Truth At Last *

New Age = Occultism = Spiritualism = Diabolism.

That's a bit harsh, you say?

Where do you think the Power comes from? It's not Heaven, is it? White magic and black magic are both demonic in origin.

‘White witches' are the useful idiots of the occult. Here's a test for Mistress Wise: Ask your 'familiar' to say “Praise the Lord Jesus Christ!” Here's another: tell them you don't want to contact them any more and for them to stop contacting you. See what happens.

Mediums talk to lying spirits, which are demons. The demon pretends it's your grandma. It gives tidbits of information that while they are true (sometimes), they are not truly helpful and/or they are banal.

Meanwhile, serious problems like illnesses and accidents erupt around you.

You petition a pagan 'god' for a cure, and you get it. What you don't realise is that it was the demon that was causing the disease in the first place. Then later you have a relapse. Or something else goes seriously wrong.

Candles can be made to light by themselves. Enemies who are not good Christians can be blasted. You gain power and lustful affection but what you can't facilitate is your own salvation; you're on a track that takes you bit-by-bit leftward and downwards.

You're walking down the wide and pleasant road to Hell. You don't need Catholicism because you think you're going to be 'reincarnated.' Watch how your 'contact' gets you to do more and more sinful things. Watch what happens when you try to disown them.

The devil is a liar and a murderer, you see, forever and for all. He's the king of deceit and he's had a long time to practice it. The demons that serve you in this life will force you to serve them in Hell when you die. Forever.

The human mind can't comprehend eternity until it is liberated from the human body and the soul realises that its current state will never, ever, end.

Many People Think Jesus Is Their Friend … * */
Many people think Jesus is their friend. I wonder what they've done for Him, lately?

As a king, saviour and shepherd, he might expect more than occasional good wishes.

Why God Sends People To Hell *

Someone who has willingly and knowingly disobeyed the Commandments cannot then just saunter into Heaven.

God embodies ultimate power, will, knowledge and ubiquity. As the embodiment of both Caritas et Justitia, no evil can exist in His Presence. People who do evil reject Him. Those who knowingly do evil and thus knowingly reject God cannot enter the Presence of God after the death of the body. So, where can they go, being solely spirit? To the hell of Lucifer.

God made us. We owe him everything, much more than any earthly son owes his father. To take the gift we have been given and then smear it in dirt is a base insult.

For the crime of rebellion, and thus disobedience, angels were sent to Hell. Because we do not have immediate sight of the Presence we have more excuse than the angels. So we get Purgatory for unforgiven venial sins.

Someone who has willingly and knowingly disobeyed the Commandments cannot then just saunter into Heaven. God will not be mocked. He does not change. He does not deviate. He embodies Justice as well as mercy.

It is part of the darkness of this era that people, even many Catholics, think that this is not so. In their minds God has gone from being the father of Justice to a sentimental uncle, who will look the other way.

An Examination of Conscience

SINS AGAINST THE TEN COMMANDMENTS
Sins Against The First Commandment

Have you doubted in matters of faith? Consulted fortune-tellers? Believed in dreams? Made use of superstitious practices? Gone to places of false worship and taken an active part in the religious services of a false church? Belonged to Masons, Communists, of some other forbidden society? Read anti-Catholic books or papers? Neglected religious instruction? Omitted religious duties through fear or ridicule? Murmured against God, or despaired of His mercy? Have you rashly presumed on His goodness in committing sin? Did you pray in time of temptation? For your family? Have you neglected your daily prayers? Have you recited them carelessly, without devotion, thoughtlessly? Have you missed spending a reasonable amount of time in thanksgiving after Holy Communion? Have you been irreverent toward God, sacred persons, places or things? Have you associated with people who might have a bad influence upon your life? Have you refused to place signs of faith in your home, such as a crucifix, picture of the Blessed Mother or the saints?

Sins Against The Second Commandment

Have you taken the name of God in vain? Laughed at the profane use of the name of God or irreverent speech by others? Given bad example to children by such speech in their presence, or by neglecting to correct a child when irreverent or profane language was used? Spoken disrespectfully of the saints or holy things? Allowed others in your household to do the same? Sworn falsely, that is, called upon God to witness the truth of what you were saying, when you were in reality telling a lie? Sworn rashly, or in slight and trivial matters? Have you cursed persons, animals, or things? Have you blasphemed, that is, used insulting language expressing contempt for God, His saints or sacred things? Have you caused others to do so? Have you criticized God's mercy or justice, or murmured against His providence?

Sins Against The Third Commandment

Have you assisted at Mass on Sundays and Holydays? Have you been late for Mass? Behaved properly in Church? Have you performed or commanded unnecessary servile work, bought or sold without necessity, or in any other way - gambling, drinking - profaned these holy days?

Sins Against The Fourth Commandment

Have you shown due honor, love, gratitude and obedience to your parents? Have you shown due honor and obedience to your pastors and other lawful superiors? Have you asked their pardon when you hurt them? Have you been disrespectful to your parents by speaking angrily to them, saying unkind, harsh words to them and about them, or by being ashamed of them? If you are a parent, have you shown this lack of honor, love and gratitude to your parents in the presence of your children? Have you criticized them and rejected some of their orders? Have you corrected and punished your children for serious transgressions, or forbidden them to enter serious occasions of sin? Have you cooperated with teachers in the education of your children? Have you refused to send your children to Catholic school when you could have done so and had no permission from bishop or pastor to do otherwise? If there is no Catholic school in your vicinity, have you sent your children to catechism faithfully? Have you taken an interest in their catechism lessons? Have you cooperated with the Pastor and the Sisters in the projects sponsored by them to stimulate the children's interest in the faith? Have you trained and corrected your children in regard to chastity? Have you been disrespectful to aged persons? Have you had proper care for children and those dependent on you - both in physical and religious matters? Above all, have you given them a good example? If you are a child, have you refused to speak to your father or mother? Have you resented them? Have you disobeyed your parents when they gave you orders to avoid bad companions or dangerous occasions to sin? Have you obeyed the rules they made concerning persons to be brought into the house, the hours to be kept at night, or the conduct within the home? When earning money, while living at home or while still subject to your parents, have you refused them part of your earnings when they needed it or demanded it? As a citizen, have you obeyed laws of the city and country made for the safety and well-being of all?

Sins Against The Fifth Commandment

The fifth commandment forbids: Murder, suicide, criminal neglect that might cause serious injury or death to another, serious anger and hatred, abortion, mercy killing, the use of narcotics, sterilization, drunkenness, help extended to another to commit a mortal sin, fighting, anger, hatred and revenge.

This consideration concerning our Saviour will lead us to sorrow for our sins, that our Saviour died for our sins, and that those who sin grievously "crucify again to themselves the Son of God, making Him a mockery." (Heb. 6:8.)

292. Is sorrow for our sins, because by them we have lost heaven and deserved hell, sufficient when we go to confession? Sorrow for our sins, because by them we have lost heaven and deserved hell, is sufficient when we go to confession.

297. How many things have we to do in order to prepare for confession? We have four things to do in order to prepare for confession: first, we must heartily pray for grace to make a good confession; secondly, we must carefully examine our conscience; thirdly, we must take time and care to make a good act of contrition; and fourthly, we must resolve by the help of God to renounce our sins, and to begin a new life for the future.

298. What is Satisfaction? Satisfaction is doing the penance given us by the priest.

299. Does the penance given by the priest always make full satisfaction for our sins? The penance given by the priest does not always make full satisfaction for our sins. We should therefore, add to it other good works and penances, and try to gain Indulgences.

The authority in Scripture for the Sacrament of Extreme Unction is in the fifth chapter of St James, where it is said: "Is any one sick among you? Let him bring in the priests of the Church and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith shall save the sick man; and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him." (James 5:14,15.)

The Sacrament of Matrimony gives to those who receive it worthily a special grace, to enable them to bear the difficulties of their state, to love and be faithful to one another, and to bring up their children in the fear of God.

308. Is it a sacrilege to contract marriage in mortal sin, or in disobedience to the laws of the Church? It is a sacrilege to contract marriage in mortal sin, or in disobedience to the laws of the Church, and, instead of a blessing, the guilty parties draw down upon themselves the anger of God. CHAPTER VIII

THE CHRISTIAN'S RULE OF LIFE

333. What rule of life must we follow if we hope to be saved? If we hope to be saved, we must follow the rule of life taught by Jesus Christ.

334. What are we bound to do by the rule of life taught by Jesus Christ? By the rule of life taught by Jesus Christ we are bound always to hate sin and to love God.
335. How must we hate sin? We must hate sin above all other evils, so as to be resolved never to commit a wilful sin for the love or fear of anything whatsoever.

336. How must we love God? We must love God above all things, and with our whole heart.

337. How must we learn to love God? We must learn to love God by begging of God to teach us to love Him: "O my God, teach me to love Thee."

338. What will the love of God lead us to do? The love of God will lead us often to think how good God is; often to speak to Him in our hearts; and always to seek to please Him.

339. Does Jesus Christ also command us to love one another? Jesus Christ also commands us to love one another - that is, all persons without exception - for His sake.

340. How are we to love one another? We are to love one another by wishing well to one another, and praying for one another; and by never allowing ourselves any thought, word, or deed to the injury of anyone.

341. Are we also bound to love our enemies? We are also bound to love our enemies; not only by forgiving them from our hearts, but also by wishing them well, and praying for them.

342. Has Jesus Christ given us another great rule? Jesus Christ has given us another great rule in these words: "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow Me." (Luke 9:23.)

343. How are we to deny ourselves? We are to deny ourselves by giving up our own will, and by going against our own humours, inclinations, and passions.
344. Why are we bound to deny ourselves? We are bound to deny ourselves because our natural inclinations are prone to evil from our very childhood; and if not corrected by self-denial, they will certainly carry us to hell.

345. How are we to take up our cross daily? We are to take up our cross daily by submitting daily with patience to the labours and sufferings of this short life, and by bearing them willingly for the love of God.

346. How are we to follow our Blessed Lord? We are to follow our Blessed Lord by walking in His footsteps and imitating His virtues.

347. What are the principal virtues we are to learn of our Blessed Lord? The principal virtues we are to learn of our Blessed Lord are meekness, humility, and obedience.

348. Which are the enemies we must fight against all the days of our life? The enemies which we must fight against all the days of our life are the devil, the world, and the flesh.

349. What do you mean by the devil? By the devil I mean Satan and all his wicked angels, who are ever seeking to draw us into sin, that we may be damned with them.

350. What do you mean by the world? By the world I mean the false maxims of the world and the society of those who love the vanities, riches, and pleasures of this world better than God.

351. Why do you number the devil and the world amongst the enemies of the soul? I number the devil and the world amongst the enemies of the soul because they are always seeking, by temptation and by word or example, to carry us along with them in the broad road that leads to damnation.

352. What do you mean by the flesh? By the flesh I mean our own corrupt inclinations and passions, which are the most dangerous of all our enemies.
353. What must we do to hinder the enemies of our soul from drawing us into sin? To hinder the enemies of our soul from drawing us into sin, we must watch, pray, and fight against all their suggestions and temptations.

354. In the warfare against the devil, the world, and the flesh, on whom must we depend? In the warfare against the devil, the world, and the flesh we must depend not on ourselves, but on God only: "I can do all things in Him who strengtheneth me." (Philip. 4:13.)

CHAPTER IX

THE CHRISTIAN'S DAILY EXERCISE

356. How should you rise in the morning? I should rise in the morning diligently, dress myself modestly, and then kneel down and say my morning prayers.

357. Should you also hear Mass if you have time and opportunity? I should also hear Mass if I have time and opportunity, for to hear Mass is by far the best and most profitable of all devotions.

358. Is it useful to make daily meditation? It is useful to make daily meditation, for such was the practice of all the Saints.

359. On what ought we to meditate? We ought to meditate especially on the four last things, and the Life and Passion of our Blessed Lord.

361. And what should you do as to your eating, drinking, sleeping, and amusements? As to my eating, drinking, sleeping, and amusements, I should use all these things with moderation, and with a desire to please God.

362. Say the grace before meals. "Bless us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts, which we are going to receive from Thy bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen."

363. Say the grace after meals. "We give Thee thanks, Almighty God, for all Thy benefits, who livest and reignest, world without end. Amen. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

364. How should you sanctify your ordinary actions and employments of the day? I should sanctify my ordinary actions and employments of the day by often raising up my heart to God whilst I am about them, and saying some short prayer to Him.

366. If you have fallen into sin, what should you do? If I have fallen into sin I should cast myself in spirit at the feet of Christ, and humbly beg His pardon by a sincere act of contrition.

367. When God sends you any cross, or sickness, or pain, what should you say? When God sends me any cross, or sickness, or pain, I should say, "Lord, Thy will be done; I take this for my sins."
368. What little indulgence prayers would you do well to say often to yourself during the day? I should do well to say often to myself during the day such prayers as -

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

In all things may the most holy, the most just, and the most lovable Will of God be done, praised, and exalted above all for ever.

O Sacrament most holy, O Sacrament divine, all praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine.

Praised be Jesus Christ, praised for evermore.

My Jesus, mercy; Mary, help.

369. How should you finish the day? I should finish the day by kneeling down and saying my night prayers.

370. After your night prayers what should you do? After my night prayers I should observe due modesty in going to bed; occupy myself with the thoughts of death; and endeavour to compose myself to rest at the foot of the Cross, and give my last thoughts to my crucified Saviour.
